> Ronald W. Stoller, d/b/a Stoller Development Company "Stoller" filed his petition to rezone the said real estate from a B-4 district to an M-1 district July 17, 1980 for the purpose of constructing mini-warehouses. The City Plan Commission at its regular meeting November 24, 1980 recommended a due pass to this application subject to the following conditions:

1) That upon the adoption of an ordinance by the Fort Wayne Common Council made law by ratification by the mayor of the City of Fort Wayne, establishing a zoning designation for mini-warehousing, Stoller, for himself, his successors, heirs, devisees and assigns in ownership of the said real estate agrees forthwith to petition for the rezoning of that part of the aforedescribed real estate used for mini-warehousing.

2) That prior to the adoption of an ordinance with a mini-warehousing designation, the warehousing on the aforedescribed real estate shall be restricted exclusively for uses allowed by the present B-4 zoning, plus usage for mini-warehouse operation within the provisions of present M-1 zoning restrictions.

3) Any development site plan for the construction of mini-warehousing shall include natural screen planting along the west boundry of the real estate.

The above and foregoing restrictions may be enforced by the City Plan Commission or any of its authorized agents or any member of the community at large who has observed a breach of the said covenants.
